"A Vision of Change"

In keeping with our theme for this year, I'm getting a "vision" of something exciting that's coming just around the corner... what is it?

I'm talking about the upcoming rollout of our new rotation of Care groups. Envision with me the possibilities— the forming of new relationships, or the renewal of some others from times past; the opportunities to take on new and different kinds of service, either to certain parts of our church family, or to some outside our family. There will be a continuation of an emphasis which any good small group has always offered— a chance for one who is outside of Christ to get a feel, in a smaller, less "threatening" setting, for who Jesus is through some of his disciples and the forming of relationships with them.

While outreach should always be a concern, the largest element of our Care group ministry is their use in helping us build one another up outside of corporate worship settings. As Paul told the Ephesians, groups are to lend in the effort to "equip His people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up" (Eph. 4:12).

Prayer Concerns

Jim Bates had good results with his melano-ma removal and lymph node check.

Both Don and Melba Clapp need continued prayers for dizziness lately.

Bonnie Kennedy, Leroy Strack's sister, is having pulmonary issues.

David Castro, Susan Vahrenkamp's father, was able to get a stent placed in an artery successfully and is doing well.

Shannon McGee, Megan Odiorne's father, has not been doing well lately. He is having heart issues and feeling weak.

Judy Stewart, of the Schwertner family, had open-heart surgery on Tuesday as is recovering.

Terry Williams, son of Marvin Williams, was treated for pneumonia recently.

Do you like puzzles? Well you are in luck! There will be a jigsaw puzzle swap in the kitchen of the auditorium and everyone is invited to join! Bring old puzzles that you no longer want and put them in the kitchen, or take one to try at home!

We are glad you are here and welcome you to join us in worship.

If you have any questions, the greeters in the foyer can assist you. If this is your first time, please make sure you get a visitor's pamphlet in the foyer.
